The Open Ocean 750 Expedition Catamaran is designed by Du Toit Yacht Design and is essentially the big sister of the successful Open Ocean 630, also designed by Du Toit Yacht Design. This yacht is currently located at the factory in South Africa. Showings and sea trials can be easily arranged.

Accommodation is luxurious by expedition yacht standards, and at the same time comfortable and highly practical. The catamaran has ample accommodation and sleeps up to eight guests. Each cabin has its own spacious en-suite bathroom, with a heads and a shower. In addition, there are two crew cabins.

This Expedition Power Catamaran is ready to go. Launched in late August 2015 has been through sea trials and is fully outfitted. Highlights include:

- Owners Version. Starboard hull is owners suite. King size bed, vanity, separate shower/bathroom. Two additional bunks and a sofa. Two queen cabins with ensuite in the port hulls. Two double crew cabins both complete with ensuites. Can have up to 4 crew comfortably.
